COPYRIGHT

The copyright law of the United States – Title 17, United States Code – concerns the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproductions. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copy order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of the copyright law.

STATEMENT ON DUPLICATE IMAGES

This reel of microfilm contains material which has paper color changes, stains, or illustrations (some of which may appear on pages mixed with printed text). In order to ensure that all text and illustrations are legible, exposure settings must be changed. Therefore, when text and illustrations exist in a single image or when material backgrounds differ, such frames may need to be exposed twice.

The first exposure reflects the camera operator's best effort to capture the majority of the text; the second exposure reflects the camera operator's best effort to capture illustrative material or the remaining text. It is hoped that this practice will result in a microfilm product that fully serves the needs of most researchers.

Courses of Study.

In order to meet the wants of a larger class of Students, eight regular Courses of Study are provided, namely: The Normal English, Belles Lettres, Science and Literature, Classical, College Preparatory, Art, Music, and Business. Students may adopt any of these Courses exclusively, or may select such studies from them as they desire, subject to the approval of the Faculty.

The Normal English is designed to meet the increasing demand for teachers in our Common Schools, and is heartily commended to young ladies and gentlemen who desire thorough instruction and drill in the English branches. To those who complete this Course, a Diploma expressing the scholarship attained will be given.

The Belles Lettres Course is specially arranged to accommodate young ladies who may wish to omit the Higher Mathematics beyond Elementary Algebra and Geometry. It thus affords opportunity to connect studies in Music and Art with a well selected Course in Literature and Science.

The Course in Science and Literature is intended to give wider culture and more thorough mental discipline. It differs from the Classical Course mainly in that it omits the Greek Language entirely, and makes Latin elective with German or French during the first two years. Before entering upon this Course, the Student must be thoroughly acquainted with the Common English branches.

The Classical Course is much more extensive than is ordinarily pursued at Seminaries. It will compare favorably with the curriculum adopted by our best institutions of learning. We offer it with entire confidence to young men who are preparing for professional life, and also to young ladies who aspire to superior intellectual culture. The preparation for this Course is a thorough knowledge of the studies embraced in the Academic Course.

The College Preparatory Course is arranged for those who desire thorough instruction and systematic drill in all branches requisite for admission to our best Colleges and Universities. We commend it specially to parents who wish to place their sons under the watchful care of experienced teachers, while they receive the literary culture of a high grade institution of learning, and enjoy the social advantages of a well-regulated Christian home.

Rormal Music Course.

The growing love of Music has largely increased the demand for competent music teachers. To meet this demand this Course is established. We present it with entire confidence to those who desire to become skilled in their profession, but who have not had opportunity for Normal training.

The Institution is amply supplied with first-class instruments, comprising Grand, Upright and Square Pianos, with convenient access to a large and superior Pipe Organ.

The Course will extend through one year, upon completing which the Student will be entitled to a Diploma, with the Degree of Bachelor of Music.

Admission to the Normal Class will be by Diploma, or upon examination in the studies comprised in our regular "Course in Music," or their equivalents.

Among the special advantages offered may be mentioned: (1) Careful instruction by a thoroughly educated German Professor of acknowledged ability and wide experience; (2) Daily opportunity to hear how the different branches of Music are taught; (3) Practical work in teaching under the personal direction of a superior instructor; (4) Rare facilities for cultivating a correct taste in music, in concerts given from time to time, and in weekly public entertainments, partly musical, in the Seminary Chapel; (5) Connection with a long established and widely known Literary Institution, which will cheerfully aid in securing for its pupils positions as teachers.

Six lessons will be given each week, namely: Two in teaching the Elements of Music, two in teaching the Theory of Music, and two private lessons on the Piano or Grand Pipe Organ, as preferred.

Course in Art.

This department is under the direction of a lady of rare ability and wide culture. Having added to the usual Art Curriculum of a Seminary the regular course at a School of Design, she is thoroughly qualified to meet the most rigid demand for instruction in both the useful and ornamental branches of the department.

The Course in Drawing comprises Linear, Perspective, Object and Model Drawing. Due attention is given to the branches of India Ink, Water Colors, Pastel and Crayoning—Portrait Crayoning being a specialty. The Course in Oil embraces Landscape and Portrait Painting.

Students desiring a full Course in this department will, upon satisfactory advancement in all its branches, be entitled to a Diploma.

Elecution

Elocution is recognized as a most important branch of education. This department is under the supervision of a thoroughly qualified and experienced teacher, and will include a careful vocal drill, and practice in the entire range of expression. It will also embody such a variety of Recitations and Readings as may serve to exemplify the qualities and modulations of the voice, and will cover gesture and action.

Six dollars per term of 12 weeks—36 lessons. Private lessons, 50 cents each.

Business Department.

This Course is designed to give a thorough knowledge of the principles of business transactions. It may be pursued alone or in connection with other studies, thus accommodating those seeking a literary, as well as those seeking only a business education. The time required to finish it will depend upon the proficiency of the pupil in the English branches, and the diligence with which he works.

STUDIES.

The Course will include instruction in the Common English branches, Book-Keeping—Single and Double Entry—Business Correspondence, Business Papers of various forms, Civil Government and Political Economy.

TUITION.

Students may enter the regular classes without additional cost for tuition, except in Book-Keeping, for which $5.00 per term of three months will be charged.

ADVANTAGES.

This department offers all the opportunities for general culture afforded Students in other departments, assured by well-conducted literary societies, lectures, large libraries, association with experienced teachers, and the refining influences of a Christian home.

Board, Room, Washing, etc., same as in other departments.

ADMISSION.

Students may enter this department at any time in the Academic year, a fair knowledge of the English branches being the only requisition.

Methods of Instruction.

In Elementary Arithmetic, Grammar and Geography, the catechetical method is largely employed, but in Higher English the same course is adopted which prevails in the more advanced branches of study. The pupil is taught to study the text book by topics rather than by sentences or paragraphs, and encouraged in the lecture room to give the substance of what he has learned, in his own language. In this manner, while he is adding to his store of knowledge, he is enlarging his vocabulary, and while he is evolving principles and acquiring facts, he is increasing his power of expression, and thus unconsciously, it may be, but nevertheless surely, he lays the foundations of an easy and a concise style of composition.

In English Literature, the origin of the English language and the growth of the literature are carefully traced. In this work the most interesting facts in the lives of the best authors and their principal productions are brought under review.

Instruction in Mental Science covers the second and third terms of the Junior year. It embodies definitions of the mental faculties, and careful analyses of intellectual processes, with a brief history of the science, the main purpose being to stimulate the Student to think and investigate for himself.

Ethics, Logic and Political Economy are taught in the Senior year. Text-books are used and daily recitations are required. Class inquiries and discussions are encouraged, and familiar lectures are given from time to time by the teacher.

NATURAL SCIENCE.

In the department of Natural Science, the underlying aim is to teach the Student to think and observe for himself, and at the same time to give him such a fund of practical knowledge as will fit him for the active duties of life. In all the branches the text book is used as a means to gain knowledge of topics rather than to be studied as an end in itself, and as far as possible the Student is led to the study of the objects themselves. No pains are spared to cultivate habits of clear, accurate and systematic thought and expression.

Geology is taken during the first term of the Senior year. A practical knowledge of the commoner minerals and rocks is acquired, and excursions are made to quarries and regions which illustrate various geological formations. During the past year the limestone quarries east of the city, the building stone quarries on the north, also a section through South Bald Eagle Mountain into Mosquito Valley were surveyed geologically and colored sections, drawn to a scale, were made. Each Student made a written report and collected a full set of rock specimens and fossils. Six different geological formations bearing fossils are admirably illustrated within a few miles of the Seminary.

Chemistry occupies the second and third terms of the Senior year. The principles of the atomic theories are thoroughly taught by lectures. There is constant practice in writing chemical equations, and throughout the Course the main facts are illustrated by experiment. During the third term of the present year, twelve laboratory desks were equipped and the class was given a course in Qualitative Analysis.

The study of Physics embraces two terms of the Junior year. Mechanics, Sound and Heat are taken in the Fall term, and Optics, Electricity and Magnetism in the Winter. The principles and laws are illustrated as far as practicable by apparatus. The relation between the different branches is held strongly before the mind, and practical questions, drawn from everyday life, are constantly brought forward to teach the Student to apply the principles learned in the text-book.

In Botany, after a few weeks of work in Gray's School and Field Book, the Student goes directly to the plant, analysis occupying the latter half of the term. An herbarium is collected and prepared by each member of the class.

Lectures are given from time to time upon subjects of interest to the department.

ANCIENT LANGUAGES.

In the departments of Greek and Latin, scrupulous attention is given to the grammatical structure of these languages, their relation to English, the illustration and application of principles, accurate translation, and to the literary significance of each author studied. It is aimed to give to the classics by these means their proper place as an aid to expression, to a thorough knowledge of our own language and to the pursuit of other languages, as well as to afford the usual mental discipline. Careful attention is given, also, to those preparing for college or for professional study.

WILLIAMSPORT DICKINSON SEMINARY.

MODERN LANGUAGES.

Modern Languages are taught with a view of enabling the Student to read them at sight, and write and speak them idiomatically. The Course com-. prises two, three or more years, as the Student may desire.

In German, the text-books for the first year are Comfort's German Course and Wurst's Sprachdenklehre; for the second year some of the German Classics are translated and the constructions analyzed according to the German method, the Student being required to make explanations of the text in German.

Besides the study of Classical German, Comfort's Conversations are studied as the basis of conversational exercises in the class. The Student is required to recite in the language as soon as he has sufficient knowledge of construction to form a sentence.

Lectures on the application of Grimm's Law of the Progression of Mutes, and on the Literature, are given during the Course.

In French, the text-books for the first year are Buckingham's Eugène's French Grammar and Ahn's Pronouncing Primer, accompanied with various original exercises, oral and written. The second year some standard French author or authors are read after the Student has been grounded in the principles of La Grammaire Française (Abrégé de) par Noël et Chapsal. Special attention is given to the pronunciation and to the idioms of the language.

The latter part of the second year the class study the French newspaper, the object being to meet the practical needs of the Student.

MATHEMATICS.

The Course in Mathematics is coëxtensive with that in the majority of our best colleges. Although the study is considered as chiefly disciplinary, the aim throughout the Course is to acquaint the Student with the instruments in most familiar use by the practical scientists and mathematicians of the day, as well as to strengthen his mental faculties and increase his logical acumen. At the commencement of each subject, a familiar lecture is given on its history and practical utility.

Algebra is begun, the Student being led slowly through the rudiments, and made to review the fundamentals daily. After two terms spent in studying the elements, the University Algebra is taken up at the Calculus of Radicals, and continued through Quadratics, Proportions, Permutations and Combinations, Progressions, Identical Equations, Decomposition of Fractions, Residual Formula, Newton's Binomial Theorem, Method of Indeterminate Coëfficients, Reversion of Series, Logarithms, Rule of Des Cartes, Cardau's Solution of Cubic Equations, and Sturm's Theorem. The aim of the instruction in advanced Algebra is to free the Student from his previous dependence upon the text-book, and to cultivate ability and taste for original mathematical work. Great stress is laid upon mathematical generalization and the concise demonstration of principles.

The Course in Geometry covers seven books, embracing both the Plane and Solid Geometry. The demonstrations are partly oral and partly written, the written exercises being deemed a valuable aid to the cultivation of accuracy of thought and expression. Plane Trigonometry is taken entire, and the class is exercised in the solution of practical problems. In Surveying, the Theory and Practice are combined. The class is conveniently divided, and each division in turn is taken by the teacher into the field for practical work. Plots of the surveys made are drawn, and, together with the computations, are submitted to the teacher for inspection.

One term is spent in Analytical Geometry, completing the Cartesian Method of Coördinates, the Method of Polar Coördinates, and the Transformation of Coördinates. To Calculus two terms are given, covering, in the Differential Calculus, the Differentiation of Functions of a Single Variable, Maclaurin's and Taylor's Theorems, together with the deduction of the Binomial Theorem and the Theory of Logarithms, the Evaluation of Indeterminate Forms, and the Maxima and Minima of Functions of a Single Variable; and in the Integral Calculus, the Integration of all the Elementary Forms.

HISTORY AND RHETORIC.

In the study of History, the object is to familiarize the Student with the main facts and principles, thus forming a foundation on which to build by future reading and investigation. To this end the text-book is thoroughly studied in connection with a Manual of Classical Antiquities and an Atlas, while at the same time the Student is encouraged to consult other authorities and bring in additional matter bearing on the subject. Recitation is by the analytical and topical methods.

Special attention is given to instruction in Rhetoric, on account of its great value to the Student. The principles of good writing are studied and analyzed with a view to their practical application.

During the last term much of the time is devoted to original productions in the various departments of literary composition, on themes assigned by the teacher. These productions are read before the class, where general criticisms are offered, after which they are handed to the teacher for more careful correction.

Special Information.

A Normal Class will be organized during the Fall and Spring Terms for those who desire to teach. The Course will comprehend special instruction and drill in the branches taught in Public Schools, practical work in teaching under the direction of members of the Faculty, and Lectures on the Theory of Teaching by the President. No extra charge will be made.

We shall not be ready to receive students before the first day of the term. On the second day classes are formed, a term schedule for recitations adopted, and lessons assigned.

Students from other schools may enter any class on passing a satisfactory examination in the previous studies of the Course, or their equivalents. The examination may be waived if the Faculty are otherwise assured that it is unnecessary.

Discounts are made on all bills, except tuition in ornamental branches, when two enter from the same family at the same time; also to all ministers, all persons preparing for the ministry or missionary work, and all persons preparing to teach.

The language "elected" in the course in Science and Literature will be retained throughout the required two years.

The ladies are allowed to substitute a Course in Music, Drawing and Painting, German or French, for the Greek Language, and for Analytical Geometry and Calculus.

The gentlemen may substitute two years in Greek or German for Analytical Geometry and Calculus.

Orthography, Etymology, Reading, Composition and Declamation throughout all the courses.

The classes in Trigonometry and Surveying are given such field drill as will familiarize them with practical surveying.

In the departments of Ancient and Modern Languages the classes are practiced in oral and written exercises throughout the Course.

Lectures will be given from time to time in the various departments.

A Biblical Class will also be formed for the benefit of such as have the Ministry in view, if desired.

General Information.

Williamsport Dickinson Seminary

Is an Institution of high grade, with ample facilities for giving young ladies and gentlemen a superior education. It is organized upon the plans which have been approved by long experience, and adopted by the best schools in this country, embracing all modern appliances in means and methods of instruction. It was founded in 1848; and is regularly chartered by the Legislature of the State of Pennsylvania, and authorized to confer degrees upon those who complete the prescribed Courses of Study.

The Seminary is under the patronage of the Central Pennsylvania Conference, being owned and practically managed by the Preachers' Aid Society. As this investment was rather to promote the important work of Higher Christian Education than to make money, the paramount purpose is to combine thorough instruction and careful moral training with the comforts of a good home, at the lowest possible rates.

Location.

Williamsport is one of the most beautiful and healthful places in the State. It has never been subject to epidemics of any kind. Many coming to the school in poor health have returned fully restored. The city is situated on the West Branch of the Susquehanna River, has a population of thirty thousand, is widely known for its intelligence, its enterprise, the taste displayed in the character of its public buildings and private residences, and the moral appliances with which it is furnished. In small towns and villages the facilities for culture—intellectual as well as æsthetic and moral—are generally limited, rarely reaching beyond the institution itself, and hence student life must become monotonous, lacking the inspiration which a larger place with wider opportunities affords.

Twenty-seven churches, an active temperance organization, and a branch of the Young Men's Christian Association, embracing many of the most earnest Christians in the community, with a large library free to all, and accessible at all times, indicate some of the religious influences brought to bear upon the young in Williamsport.

WILLIAMSPORT DICKINSON SEMINARY.

Buildings.

The buildings occupy an eminence overlooking the city, and are surrounded by beautiful shade trees, while the grounds contain five acres, affording ample room for exercise and play. They are brick, heated by steam, provided with fire-escapes, and supplied throughout with pure mountain water.

Both departments are furnished with bath-rooms-and all modern appliances for comfort, and in the entire arrangement of the buildings great care has been taken for the convenience and health of the occupants.

The ladies' apartments are entirely separate from the others, and there is no association of the sexes but in the presence of their instructors. The happy influence, mutually exerted, in their slight association in the recitation room, at the table, and in the public exercises in the Chapel, is to be seen in the cultivation of a cheerful and animated disposition, in the formation of good habits and manners, in ardent devotion to study, and in the attainment of high moral character. These, with many other valuable results, have established the fact that the best plan for a school is, according to the evident design of Providence in the constitution of society, on the basis of a well-regulated Christian family. The members of the Faculty live in the building, eat at the same tables, and have constant oversight of all the Students.

Physical Realth.

Recognizing the importance of physical culture, ample provision is made for appropriate athletic sports, as well as for systematic physical development. A military company is organized, with drill during recreation hours, for the gentlemen.

Suitable exercise is provided for the ladies in calisthenics and light gymnastics, under the direction of a competent teacher. All the ladies are required to participate in these exercises.

A gymnasium, forty by sixty feet, has been erected and furnished for the use of all Students, under proper regulation, for which fifty cents per term will be charged.

Lectures on health will also be given from time to time, by an eminent physician.

Rooms and Furniture.

The rooms are larger than in most boarding schools, the ladies' being 16x13 feet, and the gentlemen's 20x9½ feet. They are furnished with all heavy articles, and if desired, any room will be entirely furnished; but Students may bring their own sheets, (for double beds,) pillows, pillow cases, blankets, counterpanes, mirrors and lamps, and thus lessen the expense.

Expenses.

Total cost, with room furnished as above:

In Classical and Scientific Course, (per year,)		-	9	$203	33
In Classical and Scientific Course, (per term of 12 weeks,)	-		-	61	60
In Common English Course, (per year,)		-		195	33
In Common English Course, (per term of 12 weeks,) -	_		_	58	60

When rooms are entirely furnished, $13 will be added per year, or $6 per term, for each Student. This includes all charges for furnished rooms, carpet, board, washing, (12 plain pieces per week,) heat, light, and tuition in Latin, Greek, Mathematics, Sciences, English and Penmanship. There are no extras whatever, except for Book-Keeping, Ornamental Branches and Modern Languages, the charges for which are specifically stated elsewhere.

We desire to emphasize this statement, because some schools, whose advertised rates are higher than ours, increase the expenses still more by numerous "extras."

We ask those who are seeking education for themselves, and parents who contemplate sending their children to a boarding school, to carefully note the fact that we furnish everything embraced in a thoroughly equipped school, with all the comforts of a good home, including a large, airy, and completely furnished room, in a beautiful and healthful location, at the low rate of $216.33 per year, in courses of study which prepare the Student for business, for professional life, or for the lower or higher classes in college; or, if they prefer to furnish their own rooms with bed-clothes, mirrors, lamp and carpet, for $203.33 in Classical Studies, and $195.33 in Common English.

Persons applying for rooms will please state whether they wish them furnished entirely or in part.

Payments.

Term bills are payable in advance, one-half at opening and the balance at the middle of the term.

Twenty-five cents will be added to the ordinary rate per week for board, washing and room, when Students attend a part of a term. No reduction in tuition for less than half a term.

Extra washing, ordinary pieces, 50 cents per dozen; ladies' plain gowns, 20 cents each. Meals carried to rooms, 10 cents each, or 25 cents per day.

When Students are called away by sickness or providential necessity, moneys advanced will be returned. Students dismissed or leaving without the approval of the President may be charged for the full term.

Deduction for absence is made on recommendation of the President to the Treasurer. No reduction for board or tuition for absence of two weeks or less at the beginning, or the last four weeks before the close of the term.

Five dollars must be deposited with the Treasurer on entering, to cover damages that the Student may do to room or other property. This will be returned when the Student leaves, but not before, in case no injury has been done. Any Student rooming alone will be charged $5 extra per term.

Day scholars will be charged from $6.00 to $13.00 per term of twelve weeks, according to the studies they pursue. No reduction in tuition for less than half a term.

Merms and Vacations.

The Seminary year is divided into three terms, as follows:

Fall Term—16 Weeks. Begins Tuesday, August 30th, 1887. Ends December 19th. Vacation, 3 Weeks.

Winter Term—12 Weeks. Begins Monday, January 9th, 1888. Ends April 2d. No vacation.

Spring Term—12 Weeks. Begins Monday, April 2d, 1888. Ends June 21st. Vacation, 10 Weeks.

Admission.

Pupils of good moral character will be received at any time, for a single term or longer period.

Must arrange bills with the Treasurer before attending recitations.

Must take at least four studies, unless excused by the Faculty.

Must register name and church, and agree to comply with all rules and regulations of the School.

Each Student will be considered a member of the Institution until due notice shall have been given of intention to leave and permission obtained of the President.

Boarding.

This department is under the general direction of the President, but an experienced Steward and a thoroughly competent Matron have immediate charge. The department commends itself by cleanliness, abundance of supply, excellence of quality, good cooking, and adaptation to health.

Discipline.

The discipline is firm, but mild and impartial. While every encouragement will be given to the orderly and studious, and due allowance be made for youthful indiscretion, yet the lawless and refractory cannot long remain among us.

. Apparatus.

The Seminary is furnished with a collection of apparatus, together with full sets of Globes, Maps and Charts, a Cabinet of Minerals, and a large supply of Chemical and Laboratory Utensils, thus affording facility for illustration and experiment.

Merit and Demerit.

A daily record is kept of all the exercises of the School, from which record the Students will be graded. A record of demerits is also kept. Tardiness, unexcused absences from required exercises, and all disorderly conduct, will subject the Student to demerit marks. Ten such marks bring a private reproof before the Faculty; twenty a public reprimand before the whole school, and thirty may send the offender away. Sessional reports are sent to parents.

Religious Services.

WILLIAMSPORT DICKINSON SEMINARY.

Every Student is required to attend religious services in the Chapel daily, as well as public worship morning and evening every Sabbath, at such place as parents or guardians may designate, the President assenting.

N. B.—Each Student must be supplied with a Bible, to be read, without note or sectarian comment, in the services of the Chapel. The whole school read in concert.

A general experience meeting is held every Sabbath at half-past eight A. M., and generally a service of song at six P. M., continuing one hour. Also, a prayer meeting for the ladies and gentlemen on Thursday evenings. Attendance upon these social services is optional with the Students.

Literary Exercises.

Exercises in Spelling, Etymology, Reading, Declamation and Original Composition are required of all the Students throughout the year. In addition to these, public exercises are held in the Seminary Chapel every Friday evening, at which the more advanced Students read essays or deliver original speeches, interspersed with vocal or instrumental music, furnished by the Music Department.

Literary Societies.

There are three flourishing Literary Societies connected with the Seminary—the Belles Lettres, the Gamma Epsilon and the Tripartite Union. The first two are in the gentlemen's, and the last in the ladies' department. Each has a well furnished hall, and a judiciously selected library, aggregating more than two thousand volumes. Each prepares and reads a paper in the Chapel once in three weeks, in connection with other literary exercises, thus furnishing inspiration to intellectual culture, as well as entertainment for the Students and the public.

Instruction.

Our methods are modern, and adapted to the need of the Students. No pains are spared to give thorough, practical and scholarly training in all the departments by teachers of superior attainments and experience. Besides instruction in connection with the text-book, lectures illustrated by experiments are given from time to time.

Outsit.

The gentlemen should be provided with durable clothing, heavy boots or shoes, an umbrella, and a pair of slippers to be worn in the room. The ladies must be supplied with thick walking-shoes, an umbrella, India-rubber overshoes, water-proof cloak and a suit for exercise in calisthenics and light gymnastics. Their attire for general use should be neat and simple, but not elegant or expensive. All wearing apparel must be plainly marked with the full name of the owner. We suggest that in addition to towels, napkins and napkin ring, each pupil bring a knife, fork and spoon, for use in case of sickness.

A Word to Parents.

- 1. Part Try to have your children here on the first day of the term, but not before, as we shall not be ready to receive them. The classes are formed on the second day, and it will be better for all concerned, that the Student start regularly with his class.
- 2. If possible, do not call them away during the session. Absence, if only for a few days, disarranges the class, and is generally the beginning of irregularity on the part of the scholar.
- 3. Do not allow your children to leave the School before the examinations, unless it cannot be avoided. Serious inconvenience to all concerned often arises from a neglect of this caution.
- 4. Supply them very sparingly with spending money. Parents cannot be too cautious on this point.
- 5. Select for your child one of the instructors as a patron, to distribute his funds. In this way a more judicious use of your money will be made, and your child will be kept from many temptations.

Students not boarding in the Institution must observe the following rules:

- 1. Attend daily prayers.
- 2. Must attend all the Seminary exercises punctually.
- 3. Must spend the intervals between recitations in the Study Hall.
- 4. Must account for all absence by written excuse without delay, time and number of recitations being specified.
 - 5. Must not visit the rooms of boarders without permission.

Means of Access.

The Philadelphia and Erie, the Northern Central, the Philadelphia and Reading, and the Pine Creek Railroads pass through the city, so that Williamsport is readily accessible from all quarters.

By special arrangements, students using the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad and its branches procure tickets at Students' rates, after admission to the Seminary, both going to and returning from their homes, at all times. The Pennsylvania, the Philadelphia and Erie, and the Northern Central Railroads issue excursion rates to cover the Winter vacation.

Graduates and Former Students.

It may safely be estimated that from eight to ten thousand persons have received Academic instruction, covering from one to three years, in Williamsport Dickinson Seminary, while four hundred and twenty-two have completed the prescribed curriculum, graduating with the degrees the Institution confers. We desire to bring all these into active sympathy and co-operation with their Alma Mater, and hence we ask all persons to whom this notice may come, who have been students here, to send us their address, with any information concerning their personal history that may be of general interest, as we wish to compile a complete catalogue of all the Students now living.

There is a general meeting of the Alumni every year, the day before Commencement. We extend a most cordial invitation to all old Students to attend the meeting this year, which will be held June 15th, afternoon and evening. If you cannot come, let us hear from you by letter.

And now, may I not ask you to aid in enlarging the sphere and increasing the power of our Alma Mater? You can do much in many ways, but you can at least direct those looking for a good Boarding School to ours, or send me their address on a postal card. Carry the Seminary in your heart. She is doing a worthy work, and earnestly asks her sons and daughters to help her.

Abstracts

From Reports of Visiting Committees.

FROM REPORT OF 1881.

This excellent School is already widely known to be most delightfully and healthfully situated in the beautiful city of Williamsport, and is accessible from all points by direct lines of railroad, all of which furnish excursion rates to both students and patrons. The buildings are large, well arranged, and especially adapted to their uses.

Rev. E. J. Gray, A. M, the efficient, genial and scholarly President, impresses all with his comprehensive and practical views of the educational demands of the times; but his eminent fitness for the place he occupies is demonstrated by the actual results he has achieved, while the skill and ability of the Faculty by which he is sustained were manifested to the Committee in the recitations, examinations, and public exercises of the classes in a most commendable degree. Their methods of instruction require a mastery of principles as well as a recitation of lessons, and by the process of topical discussion rather than catechetical exercise, their success was evinced in the clearness of apprehension, thoroughness of preparation and independence of thought on the part of all the students. A fine Preparatory Department furnishes to children the rare opportunity of entering the School with the primer and passing up through all its grades of study. In addition to the regular Academic Course, which embraces the Ancient and Modern Languages, Natural and Moral Science, Mathematics and Belles Lettres, are the ornamental branches of Music, vocal and instrumental, Painting and Drawing, Elocution also receiving its proper share of attention. Specimens of exquisite skill and beauty from the brushes of the students adorned the Chapel walls, to impress the admirer with the extent of proficiency attained in this branch. Professor Vælkler, in charge of the Department of Music, has no superior in his art in this country, and possesses in a high degree all those gentlemanly qualities necessary to recommend him to the confidence and patronage of parents who seek for their children a finished musical education. And throughout the Institution there is a prevailing atmosphere of discipline, industry and enthusiasm on the part of both teachers and students that is felt by the most transient visitor, while wise and wholesome religious restraints and influences are constantly operating with the happiest results. The large number of those who come from the immediate vicinity, preferring the Seminary to High Schools of the greatest merit and free tuition, is sufficient evidence of the esteem the Institution commands at home.

The exercises of Commencement were attended with remarkable interest, and the eager throng that crowded the vast hall made the heart of every lover of education to rejoice that the day of popular enthusiasm over the great cause is actually at hand. Twenty-seven in all comprised the Graduating Class, the largest in the history of the Institution. The orations and essays were highly creditable, both in preparation and delivery, and throughout displayed the relative prominence given to the moral with the literary in the training of the minds that produced them.

The Committee feel warranted in assuring both preachers and people who have children to educate, that a single visit to this worthy Institution would not only convince them of the truthfulness of this report, but at once induce them to select it as a safe and successful investment.

FROM REPORT OF 1882.

The Board of Visitors from the Philadelphia, Baltimore and Central Pennsylvania Conferences, after a thorough examination into the condition and prospects of this old and honored Institution, have great pleasure in submitting a very highly favorable report to their several Conferences. The School is located in one of the most beautiful and prosperous sections of the great State of Pennsylvania, and in the midst of a population of unusual enterprise and intelligence. The spacious buildings, situated on an eminence, with extensive grounds, are in excellent condition, and well supplied with all the appliances required by a first-class institution of its kind, with an ample corps of well trained and experienced teachers, who have the entire respect and confidence of the school, as well as of the community.

The head of this working force, Rev. E. J. Gray, has proved his fitness for the place he occupies by most efficient management of the Institution for many years. It is believed that it never exerted so commanding an influence and was never so effective in its great work as at present.

The order and discipline of the School are among its marked features, and while it is not denominational in any narrow sense, it maintains very thoroughly the creed of our great aggressive Evangelism, and hence revivals are common among the students, and nearly all of them are professors of religion. It has happened in other schools, to the great grief of Christian parents, that their children have returned, after graduating, if not actually lost to the Church, yet with only a nominal religion; but we feel assured that the young people in this Seminary have all the helps and stimulants to a thoroughly Christian life which are to be found in our best Christian homes, and that it is as much the desire of the excellent President and his assistants to develop the religious character of those entrusted to their care as to promote their intellectual growth and culture.

The exercises of Commencement Week by the various classes, the Literary Societies and the Department of Music, were of very creditable character indeed. The literary productions and efforts in the various contests and entertainments were executed in a manner evincing a mental drill rarely equaled in schools of such grade. The large number of students participating in them, and the numerous friends of the students and of the Seminary in attendance, imparted an air of interest, enthusiasm and prosperity abundantly satisfactory to the most exacting investigator. In preparation and delivery of orations and essays a remarkably high standard was well sustained throughout. After careful inquiry and personal observation, we heartily recommend this very excellent School to all who have children to educate, and feel assured that the great dominant purpose of Christian education will be as certainly attained within its walls as within those of any similar institution.

FROM REPORT OF 1883.

This well-known Seminary is in a most prosperous condition. The School is located in the beautiful and enterprising city of Williamsport, Pa., and furnished with all the appliances of a first class institution of learning. The grounds are ample; the buildings are spacious, in excellent repair, and admirably adapted to their uses. The teachers are men and women of broad culture, well qualified for, and assiduously devoted to, their work. Most of them have had large experience, and all enjoy the respect and confidence of the school and community.

Rev. E. J. Gray, D. D., is eminently fitted for the position he holds as President. By his efficient management the Institution is steadily increasing in the number of students and thoroughness of instruction. We find that the common objections against the coëducation of the sexes do not apply to Dickinson Seminary. It is the most home-like school of which we have any knowledge, while the order and discipline are worthy of special commendation. The social and religious facilities afforded the students, so necessary in character-building, are all that can be desired, and the young ladies and gentlemen return to their homes with hearts and minds thoroughly imbued with the spirit of aggressive Christianity. Parents may rest assured that such advantages are enjoyed as must promote Christian growth, as well as intellectual culture.

The examinations were thorough and entirely satisfactory. The works of art which adorned the Chapel walls, comprising portraits, landscapes, panels, plaques, crayons, and china decorations, were exceptionally good, reflecting great credit upon both teacher and pupils. The Music Department, under the direction of Professor Vælkler, maintains the high character which has given it rank among the best "Music Schools" in the country.

The Commencement exercises proper were held in Elliot's Academy of Music. The large hall was crowded to its utmost capacity, and many seeking admission were turned away for lack of room. The orations and essays of the Graduating Class were of a high order, evincing independence of thought and careful mental discipline on the part of those who produced them. Prizes were awarded for excellence in Latin, Algebra, Oratory, Essays, Reading, Elocution, Music and Painting.

In the judgment of the Committee, this is an excellent School; one where those who have children to educate may send them, assured that the chief purpose of a Christian education will be realized. We most heartily recommend Williamsport Dickinson Seminary as worthy of a liberal patronage, and as meriting a loyal support by all those interested in higher culture under positively Christian influences.

FROM REPORT OF 1884.

The Committees appointed by the patronizing Conferences of Dickinson Seminary, Williamsport, Pa., report that having witnessed the examinations and Commencement exercises, they take pleasure in presenting the following commendation of the Institution and its work:

The city of Williamsport is most favorably located, with pleasant and romantic mountain scenery on one side and a rich and highly cultivated rural district on the other. The vast lumber interests have brought unusual wealth to the population of twenty thousand. Much care and money have been expended upon the municipal regulations, public improvements and private residences, hence the city is beautiful, healthful and attractive, the people manifesting unusual intelligence, thrift, good order, and devotion to church buildings and religious services. The Seminary buildings are imposing and capacious, surrounded by a charming campus, and well adapted to school purposes. The course of study nearly approaches a college curriculum, and is thoroughly utilized. The Faculty, with Rev. E. J. Gray, D. D., at the head, is able, diligent and efficient. The examinations, essays and contests gave evidence of thorough teaching, patient drill and faithful study. The productions of art and rendering of music were especially fine.

The Graduating Class of twenty-six young ladies and gentlemen acquitted themselves most commendably. They were pronounced unsurpassed in the history of the School. They are certainly well fitted to commence life's active and responsible mission. With such superior advantages and work, secured at such low rates, it is not surprising that Dickinson Seminary has been very full during the past year.

The religious oversight and influence, the refined social regulations, the manly and womanly deportment of the young lady and gentlemen students, and the general cheerful acquiescence in the wholesome discipline which is manifest in easy cheerfulness along the lines of perfect order, make a safe and desirable school in which to place our sons and daughters.

We express our great satisfaction with the facilities and workings of the Seminary, and heartily recommend it to the most liberal patronage.

FROM REPORT OF 1885.

The Committee appointed by the patronizing Conferences to visit Williamsport Dickinson Seminary at its recent Commencement, respectfully report the following:

We have carefully and somewhat minutely inquired into the condition and practical working of all the departments of the School, and have sought to prepare a deliberate and unbiased judgment of its merits. The Seminary is the property of the Preachers' Aid Society of the Central Sennsylvania Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. It is a Boarding School of high grade for both sexes, affording instruction in all branches, from primary English through the most advanced studies taught in academic institutions. It offers to all terms lower than any other school of similar grade of which we have knowledge, while to ministers' children it makes large reductions. It is under the presidency of Rev. E. J. Gray, D. D., a gentleman of large attainments in scholarship and mature experience in teaching, with a history of unparalleled success in conducting and governing the School. The buildings are large, well arranged, and well adapted for dormitories and educational purposes. Ample and beautiful grounds surround them, affording space to all for pure air and healthful exercise. Appliances for heating, ventilation, baking, laundering, bathing and fire escapes are all that could be desired. Proverbial healthfulness prevails, notwithstanding the vigorous prosecution of very advanced courses of study for which the Institution is noted. This is due not to the eligible location alone, but also to the clean and tasteful condition maintained by the management throughout and around the premises, the efficiency of the culinary service, and the facilities for physical exercise and muscular development of the students in the Gymnasium. In all the courses of study the recitations, examinations and public exercises of the different classes evinced a thoroughness of preparation and training which all present regarded as truly surprising. The work of students in the Department of Natural Science, which is under the care of Professor Freley, especially in Geology and Botany, and the displays in Mathematics, presented for public inspection, were quite extensive and of exceptional merit. The Department of Music exhibited its efficiency in a public prize contest, followed with an entertainment of rare excellence. Under Professor Vælkler, who is an acknowledged master of his art, the Seminary certainly furnishes training in instrumental and vocal music as liberal as can be obtained anywhere in the country. Scarcely less should be said of the Art Department. Specimens of rare skill and beauty, from the brushes of students, adorned the Chapel walls and demonstrated the attention given to this branch of ornamental education. Much credit is due to Mrs. J. L. Gassaway, the accomplished teacher, through whose ability and large experience such attainments have been realized and such opportunity afforded by the Seminary to students in Painting and Drawing. The science of Elocution also makes itself prominent in the exercises, commands respect and adds much to the completeness of appliances.

Discipline, industry and enthusiasm are manifestly everywhere prevalent. A home-like feeling, engendered by properly directed intermingling of the sexes, counteracts homesickness, cultivates manners and tastes, and stimu-lates emulation. Wholesome religious restraints and influences are not wanting, and result in numerous conversions every year.

WILLIAMSPORT DICKINSON SEMINARY.

The Commencement exercises were held in the Academy of Music, before a vast and select audience. The Graduating Class comprised twenty-five young ladies and gentlemen, ten of whom were children of ministers. Both in preparation and delivery, the orations and essays were all highly creditable. Some of them were remarkable. Prizes were awarded for excellence in Oratory, Music, Elocution, Gymnastics, etc. Diplomas were awarded and degrees conferred by President Gray, and the exercises closed. Congratulations followed on every hand.

Intelligent and reliable citizens of the place, who for years have closely observed the workings of the School, assured us that its efficiency is now steadily and rapidly increasing, while parents of students, after years of close and exacting insight, joined their children in unanimous and generous commendation.

Appointed to acquire and express an intelligent opinion of the character and claims for patronage of this worthy institution of learning, the Committee feel that with the facts before them, they could not say less than the foregoing, or conclude without commending the School to all parents who have children to educate, and urging them, by personal visitation, to satisfy themselves of its superior advantages.

FROM REPORT OF 1886.

The Committees of the Philadelphia and Central Pennsylvania Conferences appointed to visit the Williamsport Dickinson Seminary report that, having visited and inquired into the management of the Institution, they are prepared to commend it most heartily.

The well-known work which this Institution has been doing throughout the forty years of its existence renders it unnecessary to make more than a brief statement in regard to the Educational Department. During these years it has been sending out young men and young women to take their places in life and become a blessing in their day and generation, and many of the old students have risen to eminence in the departments of activity which they have chosen. That the former prosperity continues and increases is indicated by the fact that the Graduating Class of this year is the largest which ever went from the institution.

The present character of the educational work was shown in the nature of the examinations. This year members of the Committee were present at a large number of the examinations, and they are unanimous in the judgment that they evinced careful instruction and thorough drill on the part of the teachers, and diligent study on the part of the pupils.

There are eight courses of study under the direction of fourteen competent professors, and at the head of the Faculty and of the Institution is the Rev. E. J. Gray, D. D., who has been in charge for twelve years, and each passing year more clearly demonstrates his admirable fitness for the position,

There are three Literary Societies connected with the Seminary, which supplement the work of the recitation rooms and give increased opportunities for practice in writing, public speaking, and the conduct of deliberative bodies. There are also three Libraries, containing valuable collections of books and the nucleus of a special reference library has been formed.

During the year just closed the facilities for Chemical Analysis have been increased, and material additions have been made in the departments of Mineralogy and Geology. A large donation of marine animals has been received and arranged, which will greatly aid the instructor and the students in the department of Natural Science. Among the improvements which will be made during the present summer is the introduction of steam-heat throughout the entire building.

Among the many excellencies which might be mentioned, the Art Department stands out very conspicuously. The large and beautiful display of paintings and crayons on exhibition, the work of the students, gave proof that the Art Department is under competent management, and the quality of the work showed study, practice and decided artistic talent on the part of the pupils.

It is with special gratification that we recognize the religious atmosphere which pervades the Seminary. A revival, resulting in the conversion of a large proportion of the students and the strengthening of the religious character of others, is an annual occurrence.

The healthfulness of the location, the character of the instruction, the careful oversight, and the very reasonable charge for board and tuition, make this Institution a very inviting school for many classes.
